

Lori Stanley, Director

Lori Stanley, the Founder and CEO of Lori Stanley Non-profit Consulting, is dedicated to empowering non-profit organizations to enhance their social impact by providing clarity focus and strategic guidance. Through her consultancy, Lori enables organizations to achieve strategic growth, encourage innovation and successfully navigate the ever-evolving landscape of the non-profit sector.

Drawing from her experience, Lori brings a deep understanding of the intricacies of the charity sector. She has led organizations through significant transformative changes, acted as a trusted advisor to government bodies, spearheaded diversification efforts within companies and played a pivotal role in establishing international and national recognition within a globally based social enterprise.

Her extensive experience working with survivors spans a significant period. With a deep understanding of the challenges faced by survivors and a solid commitment to their well-being, Lori brings her invaluable board experience to Voice Found.