

Stéphanie Montreuil, Vice-Chair

Stéphanie Montreuil is an accomplished Senior Communications Leader known for her proactive and results-driven approach. With over 20 years of experience in marketing, traditional and digital communications, and public affairs she has worked on behalf of clients in government, the not-for-profit sector, and the corporate sectors. She's also worked for multiple local and national membership-driven organizations in senior communications and public affairs positions. Stéphanie champions the importance of clear, actionable communication to drive strategic and stakeholder engagement initiatives, both internally and externally.

Fluently bilingual in French and English, she is recognized for her keen ability to establish and nurture beneficial relationships with stakeholders. Her commitment to open communication practices, coupled with clear expectations, has proven invaluable in collaborative environments that value critical thinking, good judgement, creativity, and innovation.

Stéphanie resides in Ottawa and in her spare time, she is currently working on obtaining a Master's in public administration from l'École nationale d'administration publique.
