

Voice Found.

Cynthia Bland
Founder and CEO

A survivor of child sexual abuse and commercial sexual exploitation, Cynthia's recovery from the consequences of that abuse compelled her to take action, the result of which is Voice Found. Prior to founding Voice Found, Cynthia enjoyed a successful career in sales, marketing and education in national and international roles. Her leadership and innovation has been recognized by organizations and individuals alike.

Cynthia is the recipient of the Order of Ottawa (2022), was awarded the Attorney General's Victim Services Award of Distinction (2020-2021), is a winner of the Wise 50 over 50 award, and was named a 'KickAss Canadian' in 2013.
